With a choice of static, manual and power recline chairs and sofas to pick from, you will easily find the ideal combination for your home. And if you choose a power recliner, you can also add a power head tilt and lumbar support to ramp up your comfort levels even higher.

But Dixie's clever features don't stop there. There is also the option of adding a console unit to your sofa so you can enjoy the convenience of technology as you take it easy. With wireless charging, cooling cupholders, useful reading lights, hidden storage and Bluetooth speakers, your sofa will be even smarter than it looks.
